NOTES

1. Right To Attend, Speak And Vote

If you want to attend, speak and vote at the AGM you must be on the Company's register of members at 6.00 p.m. on 21 April 2020. This will allow us to confirm how many votes you have on a poll. Changes to the entries in the register of members after that time, or, if the AGM is adjourned, 48 hours (excluding non-working days) before the time of any adjourned meeting, shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend, speak or vote at the AGM.

2. Appointment of proxies

If you are a member of the Company you may appoint one or more proxies to exercise all or any of your rights to attend, speak and vote at the meeting. You may only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes and in the notes on the proxy form, which you should have received with this notice of meeting. A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. Details of how to appoint the Chairman of the meeting or another person as your proxy using the proxy form are set out in the notes on the form. If you wish your proxy to speak on your behalf at the meeting you will need to appoint your own choice of proxy (not the Chairman) and give your instructions directly to them.

You may appoint more than one proxy in relation to the AGM provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares which you hold. If you wish to appoint more than one proxy you may photocopy the proxy form or alternatively you may contact the Company's registrars, Neville Registrars Limited at Neville House, Steelpark Road, Halesowen, West Midlands, B62 8HD or via telephone on +44 (0)121 585 1131.

3. Appointment of proxy using hard copy proxy form

The notes to the proxy form explain how to direct your proxy how to vote on each resolution or withhold their vote. A vote withheld is not a vote in law, which means that the vote will not be counted in the calculation of votes for or against the resolution. If you do not indicate on the proxy form how your proxy should vote, they will vote or abstain from voting at their discretion. They will also vote (or abstain from voting) as they think fit in relation to any other matter which is put before the meeting.

To appoint a proxy using the proxy form, the form must be completed, signed and received by the Company's registrars no later than 48 hours (excluding non-working days) before the meeting. Any proxy forms (including any amended proxy forms) received after the deadline will be disregarded. The completed form must be returned by sending or delivering it to Neville Registrars Limited at Neville House, Steelpark Road, Halesowen, West Midlands, B62 8HD. If the shareholder is a company, the proxy form must be executed under its common seal or signed on its behalf by an officer or attorney. Any power of attorney or any other authority under which the proxy form is signed (or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) must be included with the proxy form.

4. Appointment of proxy by joint members

In the case of joint holders, where more than one joint holder purports to appoint a proxy, only the appointment submitted by the most senior holder will be accepted. Seniority is determined by the order in which the names of the joint holders appear in the Company's register of members in respect of the joint holding (the first-named being the most senior).

5. Changing your instructions

To change your proxy instructions simply submit a new proxy form using the methods set out above. The amended instructions must be received by the Company's registrars by the same cut-off time noted above. Where you have appointed a proxy using a hard copy proxy form and would like to change the instructions using another hard copy proxy form, please contact the Company's registrars on telephone number +44 (0)121 585 1131. If you submit more than one valid proxy form, the one received last before the latest time for the receipt of proxies will take precedence.

6. Termination of proxy appointments

In order to revoke a proxy instruction, you will need to inform the Company by sending a signed hard copy notice clearly stating your intention to revoke your proxy appointment to Neville Registrars Limited, Neville House, Steelpark Road, Halesowen, West Midlands, B62 8HD. In the case of a member which is a company, the revocation notice must be executed under its common seal or signed on its behalf by an officer or attorney. Any power of attorney or any other authority under which the revocation notice is signed (or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) must be included with the revocation notice.

In either case, your revocation notice must be received by the Company's Registrars no later than 48 hours (excluding non-working days) before the meeting. If your revocation is received after the deadline, your proxy appointment will remain valid. However, the appointment of a proxy does not prevent you from attending the meeting and voting in person. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the meeting in person, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.

7. Communications with the Company

Except as provided above, members who have general queries about the meeting should telephone the Company's registrars on +44 (0) 121 585 1131 (no other methods of communication will be accepted). You may not use any electronic address provided either in the notice of annual general meeting; or any related documents (including the proxy form), to communicate with the Company for any purposes other than those expressly stated.

Each ordinary share carries the right to one vote and therefore, the total number of voting rights in the Company at that time was 101,462,537.

Explanation of AGM business

Resolution 1: Report and accounts

Company law requires the directors to present the Company's annual report and accounts to the shareholders in respect of each financial year.

Resolutions 2-3: Directors' appointment

Nigel Theobald and David Templeton retire in accordance with Article 112.1.2 of the Company's Articles of Association, and being eligible, offers himself for re-appointment.

Resolution 4: Auditors' appointment and determination of their fees

Company law requires shareholders to reappoint the auditors each year. Saffery Champness LLP have been appointed as auditor by the board during the year and have expressed their willingness to continue in office as auditor. Therefore, a resolution to appoint them will be proposed at the annual general meeting. The resolution also provides authority for the Directors to determine the auditor's fees.

Resolutions 5-6: Authority to allot shares and waiver of pre-emption rights

The Directors seek authority to allot up to a maximum of 50,731,268, ordinary shares. Further, in order to retain some flexibility at this stage in the Company's development, the Directors seek power to allot 50,731,268 equity securities wholly for cash other than on a pre-emptive basis to current shareholders pro-rata to their existing holdings. This amount represents approximately 50% of the issued ordinary share capital as at 28 February 2020. These authorities will continue in force until the Company's AGM to be held in 2021 or 23 April 2021, whichever is the earlier.

Resolution 7: Alteration to Articles of Association

It is proposed in this resolution to adopt new Articles of Association (the "New Articles") in order to update the Company's current Articles of Association (the "Current Articles") which were adopted in 2015. The principal changes proposed to be incorporated in the New Articles are summarised below and are reflect developments in market practice as regards electronic meetings, particularly in light of the recent COVID-19 epidemic.

Virtual/hybrid general meetings: The New Articles permit the Company to hold general meetings where shareholders are not required to attend in person but may participate virtually. A meeting can be wholly virtual if attendees are in a separate location or a "hybrid" whereby some attendees are based in a single main location and others attend electronically. This will make it easier for the shareholders to take part in future general meetings, particularly where the Company is unable to hold a physical meeting. Amendments have been made to reflect this change throughout the New Articles.

Postponement of general meetings: The New Articles permit the Directors of the Company to postpone a general meeting where a notice of the general meeting has been sent to shareholders. This change will allow the Directors to postpone a general meeting because of unforeseen circumstances. Once a general meeting has been postponed, the Directors will be permitted to hold the general meeting at a different time or place or by an alternative electronic facility
